

going for a walk in Aiguafreda

DISCOVER THE TOWN CENTRE

Origin of the town

In the 16th century, prospers a neighbourhood which provided goods and services to the travellers who followed the camí ral, the route from Barcelona to Vic: a smithy, two inns, a slaughterhouse, shoemakers, carpenters and peasants, mestres de cases and paraires who sold cloths made of wool and linen. At the end of the century, the neighbourhood -called Les Ferreries- was big enough to have its own church, which would be built in 1678 and consecrated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.
